

Let Jones

From Viceroy, Foreign Department, 27th June 1917.

(Repealed to Cox, Baghdad, as No. 740 S.)

(Received at India Office, 11.50 p.m.)

Secret. Your telegram of the 20th June. Substitute for Clayton. Apart from question of his health and personal inclinations, we should find it most inconvenient to spare Dobbs, who is Revenue Commissioner, Baluchistan, with prospect of succeeding Ramsay as Agent to the Governor-General in December.
